(in-hand classes)

Type, head and neck, body and topline, legs, and movement will each be awarded points from 1-20 by each of five judges. The total of points will be divided by the number of judges to give a score out of 100 for the horse. In the event of a tie for 1st to 10th place, the higher place will be given to the horse with the most points for type. If there is still a tie the higher place will be given to the horse with the most points for movement. Failing a decision on either of these, one judge chosen by ballot will name his preference. 1st and 2nd places horses of each class qualify for their respective championships.

(Liberty classes)

Points will be given from 1-20 for type, conformation and movement. There will be no championship for Liberty Classes and 1st and 2nd place does NOT qualify for championship of in-hand classes.

In-hand Championship

Horses placed first and second in each class qualify for the appropriate championship. A junior champion and reserve junior champion, both male and female will be chosen from classes 4,6,8 and respectively 3,5,7
A senior champion and reserve senior champion, male and female, will be chosen from classes 9 to 11 and 12 to 14.

The championships will be conducted according to ECAHO Rules for Championships :

Rules for Conduct of Shows

1. By participating at a show, show organisers, judges and exhibitors and handlers agree that they will unconditionally submit themselves and the persons accompanying them to the "Rules for Conduct of Show" and, as regards veterinary matters and drug misuse, to the relevant FEI Veterinary Regulations. The accompanying persons include e.g. persons representing the show organizer, trainers, handlers as well as assistants of any of those persons. They will accept the jurisdiction of the Disciplinary Committee (DC), the Standing Disciplinary Committee (SDC) and the ECAHO Appeals Committee (EAC). Show organisers are not permitted to introduce rules which are in conflict with the EAHS "Rules for Conduct of Shows". These Rules will be interpreted when necessary under the provisions of the laws of Switzerland.
2. Horses must be accompanied at the show by a photocopy of the registration document, including a graphic description, or a horse passport to facilitate verifying the identity of the horse.

The show organizer

3. The show organiser reserves the right to refuse an entry, but must give the reason for refusal in writing.
4. The show organizer will issue a printed show catalogue. The name of every horse has to be printed in the show catalogue, as well as the names of sire, dam, (and maternal grandsire if possible) date of birth, and the names of the breeder, owner and handler. Should a horse's name not be mentioned in the catalogue, its participation at the show will be allowed only if the exhibitor cannot not be blamed for the omission; it will be for the DC to decide.
The show catalogue shall furthermore contain:
 - The Rules for Conduct of Shows,
 - The judging system used, the rules for ties and the rules for championships
 - For Shows outside Europe (as defined by the Constitution of ECAHO, Art.3.2): total amount of prize money and split-up.
5. No class may be split unless there are more than 16 horses entered. Combination of a class with the next age group of the same sex is permitted only if the number of entries for the class is below three.
6. a) Judges will not consult the show catalogue before or during the show at which they are judging. No announcement indicating the identity, breeding or past performance of exhibits, or the identity of their owners will be made during judging. It is, however, permissible for this information to be given out after the scores have been announced for each exhibit.
b) Show organisers will not release details of competitors or their exhibits to the press (except as detailed below) at any time prior to the catalogue being put on sale at the showground. Catalogues will not be offered for sale more than one day before the commencement of the show. Show organisers who wish to make use of the press (e.g. a magazine or other publication) to print the catalogue may do so, provided that they have a written contract with the publisher which confirms that the part of the magazine containing details of competitors or their exhibits will not be put on sale or posted to magazine subscribers more than one day before the commencement of the show
7. No member of the show organising team may judge.
8. The show organiser will provide for the judges, DC members, ring masters and any other ECAHO show official, appropriate transport, accommodation and meals during the show. If a judge, DC member or ring master cancels the invitation after the travel arrangements have been made, he will pay all the arising costs out of this booking.
9. No gifts in the form of fees or money are allowed to be paid/given by the organiser, nor accepted by the judges, DC members and ring masters. Material gifts are allowed.

Judges

10. EAHS listed judges and judges invited to judge at ECAHO affiliated shows agree to judge with integrity and honesty and to carry out their judging duties solely with the objects of ECAHO in mind.

The procedure will be conducted in accordance with the Rules for Disciplinary Committees,

b) Exhibitors will declare on the entry form any actual or apparent conflict or interest with any of the judges invited for the show.
c) Organisers will not accept any entries for which any actual or apparent conflict of interest with one of the appointed judges has been indicated, unless a reserve judge is available.
d) The show organiser will ensure a proper rotation of judges.
- 11.1 An actual or apparent conflict of interest may occur if a horse is judged that:
 - has been bought or sold by the judge either as owner or agent,
 - is owned in whole or part by the judge or by a member of the judge's family, or business partner in an Arab horse business venture,
 - has been leased by the judge, at any time
 - has been bred by the judge or is the property of a breeding organization in which the judge is or was an employee,
 - has been regularly trained, examined or treated by the judge in a professional capacity,

In case of doubt, the DC's decision will prevail.

35 . A Yellow Card may be issued if there is a further offence after a verbal warning or it may be issued without such warning.

Rules for Ties in Qualifying Places

50. In the event of a tie in the qualifying places of a class there are two methods of resolution:

a) The horses with equal scores are to be lined up and the judges will each record their preference without discussing the horses. The higher place will be given to the horse with the most first preferences. If there is an even number of judges and there is still a tie, the tie will be resolved by method "b". b) The higher place will be given to the horse with the most points for type. If there is still a tie, the higher place will be given to the horse with the most points for movement. Failing a decision on either of these, one judge chosen by ballot will name his preference. Method b) may also be used to resolve ties below the qualifying places, if desired. It will be for the show organiser to select either method a) or b) for resolving ties, but the show schedule must contain a clear indication of the method to be used. Rules for Championships

With the exception of shows judged under the single judge system, Championships will be judged as follows: a) The horses placed first in their class line up ordered according to age. The horses placed second in their class line up behind them in the same order. b) The first placed horses will be judged individually, standing and trotting. c) The judges will not discuss the horses. d) The Champion is selected from amongst the horses placed first in their class by individual written votes from each judge. The best placed horse will be champion. In the event of a tie, the horse that received the highest number of points in its class will be declared Champion. In the event of a further tie, the "Rules for Ties in Qualifying Places" will apply. The reserve Champion may be chosen according to one of two systems. The organiser may choose between the two following methods, but it must be clearly stated in the schedule which method will be used: 1) The Reserve Champion will be selected in the same way as the champion, from all the other horses that have qualified for the championships. 2) The Reserve Champion will be selected in the same way as the Champion, from the other first placed horses, plus the horse placed second to the Champion. The votes of the judges in the Championships will be announced and will be published at the show office immediately after the judging has finished.

51. After the Champion and Reserve Champion have been chosen, a third horse will be selected. This third horse will become Reserve Champion in the event of a disqualification of the Champion or Reserve Champion. If the third placed exhibit is not apparent from the voting papers, the judges will be asked to nominate one. In the event that both the Champion and the Reserve Champions are disqualified, no further substitution will be made, apart from the third placed exhibit moving up to be Champion. This third horse will not be announced.

52. If a horse placed first in its class is not able to take part in the Championship, the horse placed second in the class will move forward and be judged with the other horses placed first. Should a horse placed first be sent out of the ring by the judges for any reason, it will be deemed to have taken part in the championship and, therefore, the second placed horse will not be judged with the other first placed horses. Substitutions for absent first-placed or second-placed horses by third-placed or lower-ranked horses will not be permitted.

53. All horses that qualify for their respective Championships must take part in the Championship. Wilful failure to compete will disqualify the horse from the show, with its record of score and class placing being deleted and the horse being disqualified from showing for the period of one year as from the date of the show. In the event of a disqualification, horses placed behind the disqualified horse will move up a place in the class but not be entitled to enter the Championship.

Requirements after the Show

- The show organizer will communicate the results of the show immediately after the show to the EAHSC (p/o ECAHO Executive Secretary) in one of the following ways: using the ECAHO Show Software (available for download from www.ECAHO.org, "Online Office"), by sending the file called "horses.mdb" by e-mail to the Executive Secretary. using their own software by sending the results as Word.doc or Excel.xls file by e-mail to Executive Secretary.
- using any other system, the results should be sent by fax to the Executive Secretary.

In any case, a printout of the show results as well as the show catalogue and show the schedule have to be sent to the Executive Secretary by normal mail within one month after show.

54. Failure to comply with Rule 56 above may lead to a penalty for the amount of the affiliation fee of the show concerned.

55. The DC will write a report on the show. It will be sent to the EAHSC (p/o ECAHO Executive Secretary) as soon as possible, but not later than one week after the show. It should contain a general description of events of the show, as well as detailed reports on any complaints having been made. It may also contain criticism on any element regarding the show as well as suggestions for improvement.
